private

662 Lucabaugh Mill Road is an excellent example of a nineteenth century farmstead. It has a two story stone farmhouse that was built in two sections. At the rear of the farmhouse is a large frame washhouse. In the pasture in front of the farmhouse is a square stone springhouse. Other nineteenth century buildings in the complex are a brick smokehouse, stone shed, frame chicken coop and pee-pee house, corn crib, and pig sty. The frame bank barn was built in 1902.
